Eddie's Moments

September Admonition

Welcome teachers! I have an important question for you. What would YOU do if you no longer had the Bible or if you never knew what it teaches? Have you ever pondered that? With the chaotic events happening in the world, many are losing hope and don't know where to turn.

In 1962 prayer was removed from public schools. In 1963 Bibles and the 10 commandments were removed. As a result, the United States has become Biblically illiterate. People and children have nowhere to turn for hope or encouragement.

In 2001 a Supreme Courts ruling resulted in putting all those things back into the schools with even greater opportunity. Good News Clubs have resulted in the Greater Madison area public schools as well as across the United States. You have the privilege of teaching the Word of God to children. You are on the battle front lines. You can bring hope to the children and their families by teaching and helping in GNC.

We are in need of teachers for Good News Clubs® Contact our office if you can help.

Recently the U.S. Appeals Court in New York made a ruling that is threatening to end the access we have had for the last 10 years. If it stands, it could be used against us.

We may not have long. What are YOU going to do about it? YOU can stand and serve (Ephesians 6:10 - 17). YOU can pray (v 18, 19). YOU can NOT grow weary (Galatians 6:9). YOU can be an ambassador here in the Madison area for our Great Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ (2 Corinthians 5:18-21). YOU can give the message of salvation to children. If they believe, it will give them eternal life - and hope.

Following Through

"Simply let your 'Yes' be 'Yes,' and your 'No,' 'No'; anything beyond this comes from the evil one." Matthew 5:37 (NIV)

"When the going gets tough," it seems most people these days are more prone to throw in the towel than to "get going." Promises are easily broken and commitments made lightly. Should a person feel the need to bow out, it is expected that everyone should understand. There was a time when yes meant yes, but now, yes often means, "maybe...well, ok, unless something comes up." There is still something to be said for perseverance, seeing the commitment through to the end, and simply keeping your word. There is sometimes a good excuse, but more often we are excusing ourselves when we should not. Sometimes it can be tough. We overextend or overcommit, and it's hard to follow through. But, as Christians, our word should indeed be our bond, our yes should mean yes, and our no should mean no--anything else, comes from the evil one.

Teacher's Tip - Reasons to Reach Children

Place this list in your Bible and read it frequently to remind yourself why you teach boys and girls.

Evangelize Today's Child Now Because...

1. Children are sinners and need the Savior
2. Jesus Christ died for them and they can be saved.
3. There is a special promise for the young: "They that seek me early shall find me."
4. There are children who want to come to Jesus but do not know the way.
5. They are not safe until they have come.
6. The Lord may come or they may die while they are still young.
7. The child's heart is tender and not yet hardened by sin.
8. The child receives the truth more easily than the adult.
9. Having life before them, they are likely to become the most useful Christians.
10. The influence of a Christian child may lead his family to Christ.
11. Thousands of children leave our Sunday schools unconverted in their teen years.
12. These children are becoming the elders of the next generation.
13. Jesus said, "Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these."
